Alpine Select Ltd.: Information on the current investment in Rockaway Blockchain Fund

In May 2021 Alpine Select Ltd. ("Alpine Select") made an investment totaling USD 1,000,000 in the Rockaway Blockchain Fund ("RBF") and made a commitment for a further USD 1,000,000.

The RBF Investor Summit took place in Zurich today. The participants were informed that, according to the manager's assessment, the RBF had achieved an Internal Rate of Return (IRR) of +656% as of 30 September 2021. Thus, the USD 1,000,000 that Alpine Select has already invested, has a currently unrealizable value of USD 7,560,000, which represents an increase of USD 6,560,000 over the already invested investment and +5.01% of the current net asset value ("NAV").

However, since this position cannot be realized at the moment, the RBF-manager's estimated IRR valuations are not taken into account in Alpine Select's NAV.
